

Product Obsolescence Notification

September 25th 2020

To all Customers:

This letter serves as formal notification that Daiichi Dentsu Ltd. (DDK) (the manufacturer of FEC Fastening / Press systems) is discontinuing the production of the products listed below due to main components obsolescence.

- AFC1500 / DSP1500 Series Controllers

Thank you for your continued reliance on the 1500 series since the beginning of sales in 1998. The function and technical know-how of the 1500 system has been implemented to our latest products, the AFC3000 and DSP3000 series. We will make our best effort to provide products with the same functionality and quality.
